The College

Entered as second-class matter at postoffice at Rockford, Illinois, under Act of Congress, August 24, 1912.

Introduction

Contents:

- Part 1. Class lists with addresses of known, living graduates and non-graduates of the collegiate courses of Rockford Seminary and Rockford College.
- Part 2. Lists arranged by classes ('72 to '37), of those in the above groups for whom no address was obtainable, many of whom are presumably deceased but not yet so reported to the College.
- Part 3. Lists of others, chiefly students in Preparatory department courses, from classes fifty years or more out of college ('87 or earlier).
- Part 4. Geographical lists of the names in Part 1 and 3, giving only the name (marriage and maiden) with the class under which will be found the full listing with address.
- Part 5. Supplemental lists containing corrections and additions received between the time of sending proof back to the printer and the closing of the forms for the last pages of this book.

Abbreviations used in this Register follows:

- x, non-graduate
- *, deceased
- S. or Sem., seminary course
- Pr., preparatory course
- Mus., graduate in music
- Dom. Art, domestic art certificate
- H.E., home economics certificate
- Mus.C., music certificate
- Sec., secretarial certificate

In the class lists, the alphabetical position is that of the husband's name, with the maiden name shown in parentheses. For the larger classes of recent years (class of '25 and later) in which the length of the list makes it difficult to locate the address of a person known only by maiden name, a cross reference entry under the maiden name is also given. The form of name requested by the alumna is used.

For non-graduates the class in which they are listed may be an approximation; in general a person is listed with the class in which she began collegiate work.

For the years when the classes included both candidates for seminary course graduation and for degrees ('82 through '95), both groups are listed together and a graduate is understood to be a seminary graduate unless a degree is shown; when a seminary graduate received a degree from Rockford College in a later year, the degree and year is shown in parenthesis, but the name is listed in the seminary class. Those shown as academic graduates in the class of '96 or later classes are to be understood as having baccalaureate degrees; those in the class of '81 and earlier classes as being seminary course graduates.

A person both in an academic and a music course (or other special course) is usually listed according to the academic course; a graduate in two such courses is shown simply as a graduate.

4-26-76

For the classes of '38 to '40 inclusive, students enrolled during the second semester, 1937, are not printed here, as they are listed in the current college catalogue.

From the list of honorary and graduate degrees the deceased have not been removed.

The slowness of securing information about the earlier classes made it necessary to omit classes before '72 in Part 2.

When no state is indicated, Illinois is understood.

Unavoidable limitations of space, time, and expense prevent the inclusion now of the deceased, of presidents, trustees, and members of the teaching or administrative staff, and of non-graduates who were enrolled in Community, extension, music, art, or preparatory courses, etc. An exception was made, by special request, so that known, living preparatory students of classes more than fifty years out of the institution (class of '87 or earlier) are listed in Part 3. As to the former students not now included the College is of course most desirous of receiving information to add to its card files, and also corrections to any entry in this Register.

To secure information, about 6,700 return postcards were sent out; many hundred sets of class lists and preliminary geographical lists were sent to members of the classes for verification and correction. Nevertheless, many omissions and errors will be found; of this the editor and staff are all too well aware. The long interval since the last alumnae directory (1925), the lack of an alumnae office and full-time alumnae secretary, the previous lack of a file of the non-graduates in the classes before '25, and the minimal time and money available to prepare this book make errors and omissions unavoidable. The best way to secure the needed corrections of the alumnae files seemed to be the prompt issuance of this book; it gives what data we were able to secure since March, or which was then in the records; for any additions which may be sent in, the editor and staff will be grateful.

Our gratitude to those who aided us by sending information and otherwise is great; their number precludes individual mention.

Jordan T. Cavan, editor.
